IMPORTANT NOTICES

Your Duty of Disclosure

This Policy is subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Act). Under that Act you have a Duty of Disclosure.

Before you take out insurance with us, you have a duty to tell us of everything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms. If you are not sure whether something is relevant you should inform us anyway.

You have the same duty to inform us of those matters before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate your contract of insurance. The duty applies until the Policy is entered into, or where relevant, renewed, extended, varied or reinstated (Relevant Time). If anything changes between the time the answers are provided to us or disclosures are made and the Relevant Time, you need to tell us.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matters that:

- reduce the risk;
- are common knowledge;
- we know or, in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know, or
- we have indicated we do not want to know.

If you do not comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to:

- reduce our liability for any claim;
- cancel the contract;
- refuse to pay the claim, or avoid the contract from its beginning, if your nondisclosure was fraudulent.

Who Needs To Tell Us

It is important that you understand that you are answering our questions in this way for you and anyone else whom you want to be covered by the Policy.

Taxation Information

The amount of cover available under this Policy excludes Goods and Services Tax (GST).

If you are not registered for GST, in the event of a claim we will reimburse you the GST component in addition to the amount that we pay.

The amount that we are liable to pay under this Policy will be reduced by the amount of any input tax credit that you are or may be entitled to claim for the supply of goods or services covered by that payment.

If you are entitled to an input tax credit for the Premium you must inform us of the extent of that entitlement at or before the time you make a claim under this Policy. We will not indemnify you for any GST liability, fines or penalties that arise from or are attributable to your failure to notify us of your entitlement (or correct entitlement) to an input tax credit on the Premium.

If you are liable to pay an Excess under this Policy, the amount payable will be calculated after deduction of any input tax credit that you are or may be entitled to claim on payment of the Excess.

If you are unsure about the taxation implications of this Policy, you should seek advice from your accountant or tax professional.
